Winery Brief

The creation of Steve and Pam Lock, Écluse is the small, boutique winery of Lock Vineyards, known for producing some of Paso Robles most sought after grapes. We are dedicated to producing small, limited production, hand-crafted, award winning wines. The question most often asked about us is about the origin of our name. Écluse is the French word for the locks on the canals that gently carve their way through the beautiful French countryside. Since our last name is Lock, the name for our wines was born!

Our Vineyard and Wines: Our adventure began when we planted in 1998 on our 30 acres of gently rolling hillside terrain on the much desired Westside of the Paso Robles AVA. Knowing the best wines begin in the Vineyard, we spend a great deal of time with the vines and use sustained viticultural practices. The special terroir we have at Lock Vineyard produces a wine that is commonly described as silky - lush - elegant - smooth and extremely approachable, even when first released. Having control from the vineyard to the bottle insures that Écluse will remain the truly remarkable wine that it is today!

Offerings include Bordeaux-style blends, Rhone-style blends, and varietal bottlings of Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Zinfandel. Our recent accolades include two Best of Class Awards, a Gold, and a Silver from the prestigious San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, and Robert Parker, Jr. has given Écluse a 90 on the Rhone Blends, and 87 to 89 on our Syrah.

The annual production of this tiny family-owned vineyard and winery barely tops 1700 so visit their tasting room and experience wine tasting the old-fashioned way — in the barrel room with the winemaker!
